The sky is filled with stars and the colorful bands of the Milky Way galaxy, transitioning from purple and blue at the top to yellow and orange at the bottom. A large, dark diamond shape is centered in the upper half of the image, containing the text 'MAYBE TODAY' in white, bold, sans-serif font. The word 'MAYBE' is on the top line and 'TODAY' is on the bottom line, both underlined.

Benediction

We are in the sixth Sunday of our Summer worship series, "Unraveled" weaving our lives together in worship, confession, and affirmation. This week our prayers have been about family. Prayers for a couple getting married, for two women in our congregation that are looking forward to welcoming new life into their families, prayers for our children wondering when school will ever return. What prayers are you weaving into God's love this week? Perhaps you should share so we can weave God's Word and His presence into our lives during these difficult and somewhat scary times.

Call to Worship: The Conversion of Saul to Paul/Acts 9:1-20

Pastor: God of mystery You called Ananias by name, and he responded,

All: "Here I am."

Pastor: You called Paul to the work of your church, and he responded,

All: By giving his life to Your Word.

Pastor: You call us into community and faith in the middle of a pandemic,

All: So we will respond with love and time, energy and hope. We respond at this very moment with worship.

Pastor: Let us worship the God of transformation and grace. Amen.

Confession

Pastor: God of new life, what would we give to have You appear with a flash of light and a clear voice like you did for Saul?

All: Maybe then, our doubts and fears would disappear.

Pastor: Maybe then, we would live as you called us to live in this chaotic world.

All: However, when our lives depend on faith, we forget your surprising grace.

Pastor: Pull the scales from our eyes.

All: Help us see as you see.

Pastor: Help us live as you live, and forgive us when we fail.

All: Humbly we pray, Amen.
